

Job Title	DENTAL NURSE	Reports to	MEDICALDIRECTOR
Department	Clinic Operations
Job Title Summary
Responsible for assassinating dentist according to clinic protocols and procedures, the Dental nurse provides professional, high-quality dental care and education to various patients.

Responsibilities and Accountabilities

Primary Responsibilities

- Providing oral health education to patients
- Using a variety of dental instruments to scale, polish and clean teeth
- Removing plaque and applying treatments to remove or reduce decay
- Ensuring that dental tools and instruments are sterilized appropriately
- Taking radiographs and impressions of teeth and giving local anaesthetic under the Dentist's supervision
- Applying temporary sealants and coatings to protect teeth
- Collecting dental and medical histories and maintaining health records of patients
- Set up for every patient
- Provide the Dentist with the correct instruments and equipment
- Serve as an assistant to the Dentist during treatment by passing relevant equipment and instruments to him, in the same vein retracting and aspirating if necessary
- Serve as an assistant to the Dentist during treatment by passing relevant equipment and instruments to him, in the same vein retracting and aspirating if necessary
- Working to a professional code of ethics and keeping up to date with recent developments within the industry.

Other Responsibilities

- Comply with Company's by-laws, code of conduct and policies and procedures and amendments thereto.
- Abide by the authorities granted to the position as per the delegation of authority and span of control and amendments thereto.
- Perform any other relevant job roles and responsibilities assigned by management from time to time, in addition to/in substitution of the existing roles.

Academics and Experience

Qualifications and Certifications

- Bachelor's Degree or equivalent education.
- Valid MOH license

Experience

Minimum 3 years of related experience

Skills

- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Effective motivation and listening skills
- Interest in helping people
- Steady hands and good eyesight for performing precise dental work
- Confidence in handling various types of dental equipment
- The ability to work well independently, as well as in a team
- Compassion and empathy while interacting with patients
- The ability to maintain concentration for long periods of time

Benefits and salary:

- Accommodation and transportation are provided
- Salary: starting 350 KD